OPEN DAY AT THE COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

9 May – Europe Day

On 9 May 1950, Robert Schuman put forward his proposal for organising Europe, vital for the maintenance of peaceful relations. That proposal, known as the ‘Schuman Declaration’, is regarded as the origin of the European Union.

9 May is now celebrated as Europe Day which, together with the flag, the anthem, the motto and the single currency (the Euro), identifies the European Union as a political entity.

Europe Day, celebrated in all 27 countries of the Union, is an occasion for activities and festivities which lead to closer ties between Europe and its citizens and between its various peoples.

On this occasion, the Court of Justice of the European Communities is holding an open day in its new Palais from 14:00 to 18:00.
